

Moodboard

Canvas is a website that every teacher and student in the school will use. Students can feel like being in a classroom or library even if they are not on campus. Teachers and students are generally calm and curious when using it, so the main tone of Moodboard is brown and blue representing the University of Melbourne.

